2. Purpose of the instrument

- 2.2 It also extends to those British overseas territories, with suitable modifications and for the purposes of the modified Regulations, sections 44, 52(3) and 53 of the Sanctions and Anti-Money Laundering Act 2018 (“the Sanctions Act”) which are required to ensure the effective implementation in those territories of the modified Regulations.
- 2.3 It also implements in those territories the travel ban imposed by paragraph 9 of United Nations Security Council Resolution 2206 (2015) (“UNSCR 2206”) in relation to persons designated by the Security Council or its Committee under paragraph 16 of that Resolution (which is implemented in the United Kingdom by way of section 8B of the Immigration Act 1971).

5. European Convention on Human Rights

6. Legislative Context

- 6.1 This instrument is made in exercise of statutory powers under section 1 of the United Nations Act 1946 and section 63(3)(c) and (4) of the Sanctions Act.
- 6.2 The 2019 Regulations were made on 4th March 2019 using the powers in Part 1 of the Sanctions Act and were laid before Parliament on 6th March 2019. They are intended to ensure that the United Kingdom can operate an effective sanctions regime in relation to South Sudan after the end of the Transition Period. When these Regulations come into force, they will replace in the United Kingdom, with substantially the same effect, the EU sanctions regime relating to South Sudan that is currently in force under EU legislation and related UK regulations. The sanctions regime gives effect to the United Kingdom’s obligations under UNSCR 2206 in respect of financial and trade sanctions for the purpose of encouraging the resolution of the political crisis in South Sudan, and promoting peace, stability and security as well as respect for human rights, humanitarian assistance and international humanitarian law in South Sudan. The United Kingdom’s obligations under UNSCR 2206 in respect of immigration sanctions (“the UN travel ban”) are implemented in the United Kingdom separately by way of section 8B of the Immigration Act 1971.
- 6.3 Section 63(3)(c) of the Sanctions Act provides that Her Majesty may by Order in Council provide for any provision of Part 1 of that Act, or any regulations under Part 1 of that Act, to extend with or without modifications to any of the British overseas territories. Section 63(4) provides that this includes the power to extend any regulations as amended from time to time. This instrument extends to the Territories with relevant modifications both the 2019 Regulations and the provisions of the Sanctions Act required for the effective implementation in the Territories of the 2019 Regulations, namely in relation to protection for acts done for purposes of compliance, Crown application and saving for prerogative powers.
- 6.4 Section 1 of the United Nations Act 1946 provides that Her Majesty may by Order in Council make such provision as appears to Her necessary or expedient for enabling the effective application of certain measures where, under Article 41 of the Charter of the United Nations, the Security Council has called upon Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom to apply such measures to give effect to any decision of that Council. In accordance with subsection (2) of that section, such Orders in Council may extend to the British overseas territories. This instrument implements the UN travel ban in respect of South Sudan.

7. Policy background

What is being done and why?

- 7.1 Her Majesty's Government's ("HMG") policy on South Sudan includes the use of sanctions to encourage the resolution of the political crisis and armed conflicts in South Sudan. Sanctions also signal a vital lever for HMG to hold accountable those who seek to undermine the Agreement on the Resolution of the Conflict in South Sudan (ARCSS) done at Addis Ababa on 17th August 2015, and the revitalised ARCSS (R-ARCSS) done at Addis Ababa on 12th September 2018 and wider efforts to bring peace, stability and an end to the suffering of the people of South Sudan. Sanctions signal the UK's concern over the lack of accountability for violations of international humanitarian law and in relation to the perpetrators of human rights violations and abuses. Sanctions also tackle the culture of impunity surrounding ceasefire violations and continued offensives against civilians.
- 7.2 The EU first imposed sanctions in South Sudan in 2014 for the purpose of encouraging an inclusive and sustainable peace in South Sudan and to prevent the commission of serious human rights violations. The EU adopted sanctions to target persons complicit in or responsible for undermining the peace, stability and security of South Sudan. The purpose of the sanctions was to support the implementation of a ceasefire and peace agreements and to hold those who commit human rights violations to account. The UN Security Council adopted UNSCR 2206 in order to support an inclusive and sustainable peace in South Sudan, with restrictive measures imposed against those who threaten the peace, security or stability of South Sudan. The UN sanctions include an asset freeze and travel ban on persons designated under paragraph 16 of UNSCR 2206. In line with its international obligations under the Charter of the United Nations, the United Kingdom is committed to the implementation of UN sanctions in the Territories.
- 7.3 The EU implements UN sanctions through EU Council Decisions and Regulations. The 2019 Regulations are intended to deliver substantially the same policy effects in the United Kingdom as those sanctions currently in force through EU legislation. It is the policy of Her Majesty's Government to give effect to these measures in the Territories, as well as United Kingdom autonomous sanctions measures, in order to make sanctions as effective as possible.
- 7.4 Therefore, this instrument extends the 2019 Regulations, and relevant provisions of the Sanctions Act, to the Territories, as well as implementing the UN travel ban, so that the sanctions measures in the Territories in relation to South Sudan, together with associated criminal offences and enforcement powers, align with the sanctions regime in the United Kingdom. Schedule 2 to this instrument sets out the modifications to be made to the 2019 Regulations as extended by article 2 so that they can be effectively implemented and enforced in the Territories.

- 7.5 In particular, the modified Regulations ensure that the financial sanctions measures in the 2019 Regulations apply with the same effect in the Territories in respect of persons designated by the Secretary of State under the 2019 Regulations, as well as to persons designated by the UN Security Council or its Committee under paragraph 16 of UNSCR 2206. The names of designated persons are not included in this instrument or the modified Regulations. Instead, the Governor of the Territory is required to publish, and keep up to date, a list of designated persons under this sanctions regime.
- 7.6 The modifications set out in Schedule 2 to this instrument ensure that persons designated for the purposes of immigration sanctions by the Secretary of State under the 2019 Regulations (i.e. who are to be excluded from the United Kingdom) are also to be excluded from the Territories. This instrument also makes separate provision for persons designated by the UN Security Council or its Committee under paragraph 16 of UNSCR 2206 to be excluded from the Territories.
- 7.7 The provisions in the 2019 Regulations in relation to licences which may be issued in respect of financial and trade sanctions measures are modified by Schedule 2 of this instrument so that the licensing powers in the Territories are exercisable by the Governor of a Territory only with the consent of the Secretary of State. The provisions enabling directions to be given by the Secretary of State in relation to the immigration provisions in the 2019 Regulations are also modified so that the Governor of the Territory may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, direct that the immigration provisions in the modified Regulations do not apply to specified persons. The modified Regulations also provide that a person's conduct outside the Territory will not contravene a prohibition under the modified Regulations if the conduct has been authorised by a licence issued by the Secretary of State or Treasury under the 2019 Regulations; similarly, a person's conduct in another British overseas territory or a Crown Dependency will not contravene a prohibition under the modified Regulations if the conduct has been authorised by a licence or similar authorisation issued under the law of that British overseas territory or Crown Dependency.
- 7.8 The modifications set out in Schedule 2 in relation to criminal penalties and enforcement powers are intended to ensure that the implementation and enforcement of the South Sudan sanctions regime in the Territories is aligned, as far as possible and reflecting the unique legal and governance arrangements in each Territory, with its implementation and enforcement in the United Kingdom.

8. European Union (Withdrawal) Act/Withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union

- 8.1 This instrument is not being made under the European Union (Withdrawal) Act but relates to the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union. This is because it extends the 2019 Regulations to the Territories and the 2019 Regulations replace in the United Kingdom, with substantially the same effect, the existing EU sanctions regime in relation to South Sudan. The Order in Council which currently implements the EU sanctions regime in the Territories will be revoked at the end of the Transition Period.

9. Consolidation

- 9.1 This instrument does not consolidate previous instruments.

10. Consultation outcome

- 10.1 Officials at the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office have engaged with the Territories on the approach to the extension to the Territories of sanctions regimes established under the Sanctions Act, including consultation on the approach to modifications and on the ‘model’ drafting to be included in the Orders in Council.

11. Guidance

- 11.1 The Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office is working with the Territories to ensure that adequate information and guidance is published to ensure the effective implementation and understanding of the sanctions regime in the Territories.

12. Impact

- 12.1 The territorial extent of this instrument and the modified Regulations is the Territories: no, or no significant, impact is foreseen on business, charities or voluntary bodies in the United Kingdom.
- 12.2 There is no, or no significant, impact on the public sector in the United Kingdom.
- 12.3 An Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this instrument.

13. Regulating small business

- 13.1 The territorial extent of this instrument and the modified Regulations is the Territories: the legislation does not apply to activities that are undertaken by small businesses in the United Kingdom.

14. Monitoring & review

- 14.1 The Sanctions Act requires regular reviews of regulations made under section 1 of that Act. These obligations apply to the 2019 Regulations which are extended to the Territories by this instrument.
- 14.2 The UN sanctions are monitored and reviewed by the UN Security Council and by its Sanctions Committee. If the UN sanctions are suspended or lifted by the Security Council, this instrument will be reviewed and updated or revoked as necessary.
