4. Extent and Territorial Application

- 4.1 The territorial extent of this instrument is the same as the territorial extent of the various instruments which it amends: that is, the whole of the United Kingdom (“UK”).
- 4.2 Subject to paragraph 4.3, the territorial application of this instrument is also the same as the territorial application of the instruments that it amends. That is, it applies to the whole of the UK.
- 4.3 This instrument also applies to conduct by UK persons where that conduct is wholly or partly outside the UK, and some parts of it also apply to conduct by any person in the territorial sea adjacent to the UK. UK person is defined in section 21(2) of the Sanctions Act.

5. European Convention on Human Rights

- 5.1 The Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State at the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office, Rehman Chishti, MP has made the following statement regarding human rights:

“In my view the provisions of the Sanctions (Miscellaneous Amendments) (No.2) Regulations 2022 are compatible with the Convention rights.”

6. Legislative Context

- 6.1 The Sanctions Act establishes a legal framework which enables Her Majesty’s Government to impose sanctions for a number of purposes, which include that it is in the interests of international peace and security and furthers a foreign policy objective of the government of the UK.

- 6.2 This instrument makes amendments to the various amended Regulations, which were made under the Sanctions Act for discretionary purposes within section 1(2) of the Sanctions Act.

7. Policy background

What is being done and why?

- 7.1 This instrument amends a number of financial sanctions provisions in the various amended Regulations.
- 7.2 This instrument inserts a new information sharing power in each of the various amended Regulations to authorise other government departments, agencies and relevant bodies to share information to enable or assist the Treasury to discharge its functions in connection with sanctions.
- 7.3 This instrument widens the definition of a “relevant firm” (which is, inter alia, subject to certain reporting obligations to the Treasury), to include crypto-asset exchange providers and custodian wallet providers in each of the various amended Regulations.
- 7.4 Regulations 2(5), 3(5), 8(5) and 18(5) of this instrument make amendments to the Iran (Sanctions) (Human Rights) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019, the Venezuela (Sanctions) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019, the Syria (Sanctions) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 and the Myanmar (Sanctions) Regulations 2021 respectively, to correct the definition of ‘GPRS’ and to insert definitions of ‘WCDMA’ and ‘IDEN’.
- 7.5 Regulation 5(5) of this instrument makes an amendment to the Republic of Belarus (Sanctions) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 to insert a definition of ‘WCDMA’.
- 7.6 Regulation 15(5) of this instrument makes a correction to a cross-reference in Regulation 34(4) of the Global Human Rights Sanctions Regulations 2020 in respect of jurisdiction to try offences.

8. European Union Withdrawal and Future Relationship

- 8.1 This instrument does not relate to withdrawal from the European Union or trigger the statement requirements under the European Union (Withdrawal) Act. The various amended Regulations related to the withdrawal of the UK from the EU because they replaced, with substantially the same effect, previous EU sanctions regimes.

9. Consolidation

- 9.1 This instrument does not consolidate previous instruments. The Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office will keep the need for consolidation under review.

10. Consultation outcome

- 10.1 No consultation has been carried out on this instrument. The Explanatory Memoranda to the various amended Regulations explain the consultation that has been carried out in relation to the Sanctions Act.
- 10.2 There is neither a requirement in the Sanctions Act for public consultation on instruments made under the Sanctions Act, nor is there any other legal obligation to consult in respect of this instrument. Her Majesty's Government will continue engagement with stakeholders on the implementation of UK sanctions.

11. Guidance

- 11.1 In accordance with section 43 of the Sanctions Act, guidance has been published in relation to the prohibitions and requirements under the various amended Regulations. This guidance will be updated to reflect the amendments to those Regulations made by this instrument.

12. Impact

- 12.1 There is no, or no significant, impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies.
- 12.2 There is no, or no significant, impact on the public sector.
- 12.3 A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sector is foreseen.

13. Regulating small business

- 13.1 The legislation applies to activities that are undertaken by small businesses.
- 13.2 No specific action is proposed to mitigate regulatory burdens on small businesses.
- 13.3 The Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office does not believe it is possible to exempt smaller businesses from the requirements to comply with this instrument, as this could provide a route for the circumvention or evasion of sanctions.

14. Monitoring & review

- 14.1 If determined that it was no longer appropriate to maintain a sanctions regime or specific sanctions measures, that regime would be removed or amended accordingly. In the case of the various amended Regulations, that would include amendment and corrections measures introduced by this instrument. As such, the Minister does not consider that a review clause in this instrument is appropriate.
